

Advanced Services - Head of Professional Services, APAC

Melwyn Lobo

Location: Singapore / Languages: English, German, Hindi, Konkani, Marathi

Melwyn is an accomplished governance and strategy professional with a rich blend of leadership and management experience in IT services across knowledge areas, challenges and geographies with a strong track record and an overall experience of over 19+ years. Melwyn started his career as a developer and has had significant exposure in running Enterprise IT across various platforms with Interest in the Enterprise Voice Space.

Over the years Melwyn has led several interesting leadership assignments within global organization's such as Thomson Reuters (now called Refinitiv), Dimension Data (now under NTT Ltd.), ITPM Consulting (a division of Yash Technologies). Over the last few years Melwyn has worked on building practices and supporting IT companies in their quest for excellence and Innovation. In his current role as Head of Professional Services for the Cloud Communications division of NTT, Melwyn is driving the Professional Services practice in APAC.

Melwyn possesses strong business acumen and is an extremely able communicator. Backed by his strong presentation skills, multi domain exposure and his experience in engaging with Senior Management and Customers at the local, regional, and global level, Melwyn is thoroughly enjoying taking organization's on their Enterprise Voice Cloud and Collaboration journey. He is also an exponent at Complex Program Management, Kepner- Tregoe and management consulting.

Melwyn holds a Masters in IT degree from a prestigious Symbiosis College as well as a GNIIT diploma from NIIT. He has a good of software development life cycle background as he started his career in software development way back in 2000.

During his free time, he enjoys travelling, cycling, running, listening to podcasts and watching world movies.

For more information, please contact:

Melwyn Lobo / M.Lobo@arkadin.com

Together we do great things